Contract Opportunity

Position: “Do the Rights Thing” – Project Coordinator

Organization: British Columbia Aboriginal Network on Disability Society (BCANDS)

Position Type: 12-month contract (with possibility of extension through related projects) – 28 hrs. / week @ $26.50 / hour – No Benefits

Location: Victoria, British Columbia – Travel Required across BC

Employer: B.C. Aboriginal Network on Disability Society (BCANDS)

Anticipated Start Date: ASAP

Job Title: Project Coordinator

Position Summary:

The BCANDS “Do the Rights Thing” – Project Coordinator is a one-year contract with the possibility of extension. Anticipated start date is ASAP.

The “Do the Rights Thing” is a project focused on developing and implementing a system-level response to address systemic barriers to services and employment faced by women with disabilities and Deaf women. Working closely with employers, human rights organizations, women with disabilities/Deaf women, and other stakeholders, this project will create practical tools, educational material, and public awareness campaigns on the human rights obligations of employers and service providers. This project will also provide information on the social and economic benefits of equitable hiring and inclusive service provision.

The “Do the Rights Thing” project seeks to center the diverse experience of women with disabilities and Deaf women by providing them with leadership roles throughout the project, and by incorporating their first-person accounts in the public awareness campaign and educational material mentioned above.

This project is led by the DisAbled Women's Network (DAWN) Canada with BCANDS, the ARCH Disability Law Centre (Toronto) and Table des groupes de femmes de Montréal completing the project team, with the project culminating in a national human rights forum on implementing systemic solutions in late 2019 support organizations and relevant disability and health professionals to assist in developing positive, healthy and meaningful solutions / client outcomes.
